Welcome, Visitor!

We are so pleased to have you as our guest today. If you are a first-time visitor with us, please fill out a ‘visitor card’ that you will find on the back of the pew. You may put it in the collection plate or give it to one of the men at the auditorium doors as you exit.

There are free tracts and literature on the wall in the foyer. We also have Bible correspondence courses you can sign up to receive by mail at no cost to you. Let us know if you would like to set up an in-home Bible study.

Thank you for attending. We hope to see you often!

Worship

Spiritual growth is not accidental; it requires intentional effort, consistent habits, and a deep desire to draw closer to God. One of the most powerful tools God has given us to grow in faith is the regular assembling of the saints for worship. The New Testament emphasizes the importance of gathering with fellow Christians, not only to glorify God but to strengthen one another in love and truth.

In Hebrews 10:24-25, we are urged to “consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another.” Worship assemblies are not optional add-ons to the Christian life; they are essential moments of spiritual renewal and growth. When we assemble, we receive encouragement through singing (Colossians 3:16), instruction through God’s Word (Acts 20:7), strength through prayer (Acts 2:42), and unity through communion (1 Corinthians 10:16-17). These practices nourish the soul and keep our hearts focused on Christ.

Attendance is more than just being present in a pew; it is about participating with purpose. It is during worship that we reorient our hearts away from the distractions of the world and back toward the kingdom of God. Each assembly is a reminder of who we are, whose we are, and why we live the way we do. Just as our physical bodies require regular nourishment, our spirits depend on the steady intake of God’s Word, fellowship, and worship.

Moreover, faithful attendance sets an example for others especially for younger Christians, children, and those who may be struggling in faith. It speaks volumes about our priorities and commitment. It also provides us with opportunities to serve, encourage, and be involved in the life of the church family. In times of sorrow or difficulty, the worship assembly becomes a refuge. In times of joy, it becomes a celebration. In all things, it keeps us grounded in God’s grace.

If we desire to grow in the likeness of Christ, we must value what He valued. Jesus made a habit of being in the synagogue (Luke 4:16), and the early church gathered regularly with gladness and sincerity of heart (Acts 2:46-47). Let us follow their example. Let us be a people who look forward to worship, not as a duty, but as a delight. The more we worship, the stronger we become, not just individually, but as a body united in faith and love.

God Bless
-Todd
