Sunday AM: Gospel Meeting with Josh Allen
Sunday PM: Gospel Meeting with Josh Allen

Welcome, Visitor!

We are so pleased to have you as our guest today. If you are a first-time visitor with us, please fill out a ‘visitor card’ that you will find on the back of the pew. You may put it in the collection plate or give it to one of the men at the auditorium doors as you exit. There are free tracts and literature on the wall in the foyer. We also have Bible correspondence courses you can sign up to receive by mail at no cost to you. Let us know if you would like to set up an in-home Bible study.

Thank you for attending. We hope to see you often!

Supporting Our Gospel Meeting

A Gospel Meeting is much more than a series of lessons on the calendar. It is a spiritual opportunity for renewal, growth, and outreach. Our upcoming Gospel Meeting with Josh Allen is an occasion for us to strengthen our own faith while also extending the message of salvation to others. Paul reminded Timothy to “preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season” (2 Timothy 4:2). This meeting gives us the chance to hear the word preached plainly and powerfully, and it also gives us the responsibility to help make it fruitful by bringing others.

Supporting the meeting begins with prayer. James 5:16 assures us that “the effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.” Each member can pray for Brother Allen as he prepares his lessons, that he may speak with clarity, boldness, and love. We should also pray for the congregation, that we will attend with open hearts and a spirit eager to grow. And we must not forget to pray for those who we invite, our friends, co-workers, and family members, asking that the word of God will find good soil in their hearts (Luke 8:15).

When Andrew found the Messiah, the first thing he did was bring his brother Simon to Jesus (John 1:40–42). Each of us has someone we can invite, perhaps a neighbor who is seeking, a family member who has drifted away from the church, or a friend who has questions about faith. A simple, heartfelt invitation can be the first step in leading someone closer to Christ. Let us take advantage of this meeting to sow the seed widely, trusting God to give the increase (1 Corinthians 3:6).

Of course, we also support the meeting by being present ourselves. Hebrews 10:24–25 reminds us to “consider one another in order to stir up love and good works, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together.” Our attendance shows love for God, appreciation for His word, and encouragement for the preacher. It also demonstrates to our visitors that the gospel is precious to us. Every time we fill a pew, sing with joy, listen attentively, and participate in worship, we help create an atmosphere where truth can be heard and souls can be moved.

Finally, we support the meeting by encouraging one another. A warm smile, a handshake, or a kind word can make visitors feel welcome and help our brothers and sisters feel strengthened. Paul instructed, “Therefore comfort each other and edify one another, just as you also are doing” (1 Thessalonians 5:11). Our collective spirit of unity, love, and hospitality can open doors for the gospel in ways we may not even realize.

Brethren, this upcoming Gospel Meeting with Josh Allen is not simply “another event” on the calendar. It is a time for us to renew our commitment to Christ, to be strengthened in His word, and to work together for the salvation of souls. May we pray fervently, invite boldly, attend faithfully, and encourage lovingly. If each of us does our part, the Lord will be glorified, the church will be built up, and lost souls may be brought nearer to Him. Let us give our very best support, so that this effort may bear fruit to the glory of God (John 15:8).

God Bless -Todd
