Sunday AM: Jesus the Master Teacher...John 4:1-4
Sunday PM: My Brothers Keeper...Genesis 4:8-9

Welcome, Visitor!

We are so pleased to have you as our guest today. If you are a first-time visitor with us, please fill out a ‘visitor card’ that you will find on the back of the pew. You may put it in the collection plate or give it to one of the men at the auditorium doors as you exit. There are free tracts and literature on the wall in the foyer. We also have Bible correspondence courses you can sign up to receive by mail at no cost to you. Let us know if you would like to set up an in-home Bible study.

Thank you for attending. We hope to see you often!

When You Want to Quit

Every Christian, at some point, faces the temptation to quit. The burdens of life, the trials of faith, and the constant opposition of Satan can make us feel weary and discouraged. Even faithful servants of God in Scripture wrestled with these feelings. Elijah, after his victory over the prophets of Baal, sat under a broom tree and prayed, “It is enough! Now, Lord, take my life” (1 Kings 19:4). Jeremiah, weary of rejection, once said, “I will not make mention of Him, nor speak anymore in His name” (Jeremiah 20:9). Yet, in both cases, God reminded His servants of their purpose and gave them the strength to continue.

When we want to quit, we must remember the hope that sustains us. Paul encourages us in Galatians 6:9, “And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart.” The Christian life was never promised to be easy, but we are promised that our labor in the Lord is not in vain (1 Corinthians 15:58). Christ Himself endured ridicule, rejection, and suffering, yet for the joy set before Him, He endured the cross (Hebrews 12:2–3). When we look to Jesus, we find the strength to press on.

Quitting may feel like an escape, but it leaves us empty and defeated. Continuing in faith, even when weary, allows God’s power to be perfected in our weakness (2 Corinthians 12:9). The Lord has promised, “I will never leave you nor forsake you” (Hebrews 13:5), and that assurance should encourage us to keep walking with Him. When you feel like giving up, remember that the crown of life awaits those who remain faithful unto death (Revelation 2:10).

So, when you want to quit, lift your eyes to Christ, lean on the strength of God’s word, and trust that He will carry you through. The Christian race is not about speed but about endurance (Hebrews 12:1). With God’s help, you can finish strong, and one day hear the words, “Well done, good and faithful servant” (Matthew 25:23).

God Bless -Todd
