Welcome, Visitor!

We are so pleased to have you as our guest today. If you are a first-time visitor with us, please fill out a ‘visitor card’ that you will find on the back of the pew. You may put it in the collection plate or give it to one of the men at the auditorium doors as you exit. There are free tracts and literature on the wall in the foyer. We also have Bible correspondence courses you can sign up to receive by mail at no cost to you. Let us know if you would like to set up an in-home Bible study.

Thank you for attending. We hope to see you often!

God Is Still at Work

It is encouraging to be reminded that even when we cannot see immediate results, God is still at work in the lives of His people. The apostle Paul expressed confidence in this truth when he wrote, “He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ” (Philippians 1:6). God does not abandon what He starts. His work continues steadily, faithfully, and according to His perfect timing.

Often, we measure progress by outward success, visible growth, or quick answers. Yet Scripture reminds us that God’s work is sometimes quiet and gradual. Paul planted, Apollos watered, “but God gave the increase” (1 Corinthians 3:6). Our responsibility is to remain faithful in teaching, serving, and living according to God’s word, trusting that He is working even when the increase is unseen.

This truth should encourage us as we move forward. God is at work through His word (Hebrews 4:12), through faithful obedience (James 1:22), and through His people as they love and serve one another (Galatians 6:9). No effort done in the Lord is wasted, and no faithful labor goes unnoticed. As we continue walking in faith, we can be confident that God is still working, both in us and through us to accomplish His will.

God continues His work through the power of His word. The writer of Hebrews reminds us that “the word of God is living and powerful” (Hebrews 4:12). Every time Scripture is read, taught, or obeyed, God is at work shaping hearts and minds. When Christians commit themselves to hearing and doing God’s word, transformation takes place over time (James 1:22). No sincere effort to follow God’s word is ever wasted.

God is also at work through His people as they serve one another. When Christians grow weary in well-doing, Paul offers encouragement: “Let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart” (Galatians 6:9). Acts of kindness, words of encouragement, and quiet service may seem small, but God uses them to strengthen His church and glorify His name. Even the smallest faithful act can have lasting spiritual impact.

As we move forward, whether into a new year, a new season of life, or new challenges, we can do so with confidence and hope. God has not finished His work in us, nor has He abandoned His purpose for His people. “Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain in the Lord” (1 Corinthians 15:58). When we remain faithful, trusting God’s promises, we can be certain of this truth: God is still at work.

God Bless -Todd
