Welcome, Visitor!

We are so pleased to have you as our guest today. If you are a first-time visitor with us, please fill out a ‘visitor card’ that you will find on the back of the pew. You may put it in the collection plate or give it to one of the men at the auditorium doors as you exit. There are free tracts and literature on the wall in the foyer. We also have Bible correspondence courses you can sign up to receive by mail at no cost to you. Let us know if you would like to set up an in-home Bible study.

Thank you for attending. We hope to see you often!

How Great is Our God

There is no greater subject for our minds and hearts than God Himself. The Bible does not begin by trying to prove His existence but simply declares it: “In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth” (Genesis 1:1). From the very first verse, we are introduced to the One who is eternal, powerful, and sovereign over all things. David wrote, “The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows His handiwork” (Psalm 19:1). Creation itself testifies that there is a Creator, and His power and wisdom are seen all around us.

God is not only powerful, but He is also holy and righteous. The prophet Isaiah heard the seraphim cry, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory!” (Isaiah 6:3). Because God is holy, He cannot tolerate sin, and this presents a serious problem for mankind. “For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God” (Romans 3:23). Yet even in our sin, God’s love is clearly demonstrated. “But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us” (Romans 5:8). The same God who is just is also merciful and loving.

God is also a God who desires a relationship with His creation. James tells us, “Draw near to God and He will draw near to you” (James 4:8). He is not distant or unconcerned but actively cares for us. Peter reminds us to be “casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you” (1 Peter 5:7). Through His Word, He has revealed His will so that we may know Him, obey Him, and walk in fellowship with Him.

Because of who God is, our response should be one of reverence, trust, and obedience. Solomon concluded, “Fear God and keep His commandments, for this is man’s all” (Ecclesiastes 12:13). When we truly understand God’s greatness, His holiness, and His love, it changes the way we live. May we strive each day to honor Him, trust in Him, and faithfully serve Him, knowing that He alone is worthy of all glory and praise.

God Bless -Todd
