Sunday AM: “Do We Believe Old Testament Scripture?”...1 Cor 10:1-11

Sunday PM: “The Hands of God”...Peter 5:6-10

Welcome, Visitor!

We are so pleased to have you as our guest today. If you are a first-time visitor with us, please fill out a ‘visitor card’ that you will find on the back of the pew. You may put it in the collection plate or give it to one of the men at the auditorium doors as you exit. There are free tracts and literature on the wall in the foyer. We also have Bible correspondence courses you can sign up to receive by mail at no cost to you. Let us know if you would like to set up an in-home Bible study.

Thank you for attending. We hope to see you often!

Thomas

Thomas is remembered by many as “Doubting Thomas,” yet his life reveals a disciple of courage, honesty, and growing faith. Thomas was one of the twelve apostles personally chosen by Jesus to follow Him and learn from His teaching. While he is often associated with his doubts concerning the resurrection of Jesus, the Scriptures show that Thomas possessed deep devotion to the Lord. When Jesus prepared to go to Judea after Lazarus had died, the disciples feared for His safety because the Jews had recently sought to stone Him. Thomas boldly said to the other disciples, “Let us also go, that we may die with Him” (John 11:16). His statement demonstrated loyalty and willingness to suffer alongside Christ.

Thomas also displayed a sincere desire to understand the truth. In John 14:5, when Jesus spoke of going away to prepare a place for His followers, Thomas honestly admitted, “Lord, we do not know where You are going, and how can we know the way?” This question led Jesus to give one of the most comforting and powerful statements in Scripture: “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me” (John 14:6). Thomas was not afraid to ask questions when he lacked understanding, and his honesty provided an opportunity for Christ to reveal eternal truth.

Most famously, Thomas struggled to believe the reports of Jesus’ resurrection after the crucifixion. When the other apostles declared they had seen the risen Lord, Thomas responded, “Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe” (John 20:25). Eight days later, Jesus appeared again and invited Thomas to examine the evidence for himself. Confronted with the risen Savior, Thomas made one of the greatest confessions found in the New Testament, saying, “My Lord and my God!” (John 20:28). Jesus then taught an important lesson for all future believers: “Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed” (John 20:29).

The life of Thomas reminds Christians that faith can grow stronger through honest searching and personal conviction. Though he struggled with doubt for a time, he did not remain in unbelief. Instead, he became fully convinced of the resurrection and devoted himself to the service of Christ. Thomas teaches us that God can use sincere hearts that seek truth, and that genuine faith is built upon the evidence of Christ’s resurrection and the testimony of God’s Word.

God Bless -Todd
