Sunday AM: “Memorials”...1 Corinthians 11:23-31

Sunday PM: “Lay Aside Every Weight”...Hebrews 12:1-3

Welcome, Visitor!

We are so pleased to have you as our guest today. If you are a first-time visitor with us, please fill out a ‘visitor card’ that you will find on the back of the pew. You may put it in the collection plate or give it to one of the men at the auditorium doors as you exit. There are free tracts and literature on the wall in the foyer. We also have Bible correspondence courses you can sign up to receive by mail at no cost to you. Let us know if you would like to set up an in-home Bible study.

Thank you for attending. We hope to see you often!

Remember

One of the greatest blessings God has given mankind is the ability to remember. Throughout Scripture, God continually called His people to remember His works, His commandments, and His faithfulness. Forgetfulness often leads people away from God, but remembering keeps our hearts anchored in truth. Moses told Israel, “Beware that thou forget not the LORD thy God” (Deuteronomy 8:11). When the people remembered God’s deliverance and provision, they remained thankful and obedient. When they forgot Him, they drifted into sin and rebellion.

The Bible teaches Christians to remember the sacrifice of Christ every first day of the week through the Lord’s Supper. Jesus said, “This do in remembrance of me” (Luke 22:19). Each Sunday, Christians pause to remember the body and blood of Christ given for our salvation. This remembrance is not merely a ritual but a heartfelt reflection upon the cross, the grace of God, and the hope found in the resurrection. Remembering Christ strengthens faith and renews devotion.

Christians are also encouraged to remember the teachings of Scripture. Peter wrote, “I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things” (2 Peter 1:12). Even faithful Christians need continual reminders because the pressures of life can distract us from spiritual priorities. Remembering God’s promises gives comfort in trials, courage in temptation, and hope in difficult days.

The Scriptures also remind us to remember others. Hebrews 13:3 says, “Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them.” We are called to remember those who suffer, those in need, and those who labor faithfully for the Lord. A remembering heart is a compassionate heart.

May we strive each day to remember God’s goodness, Christ’s sacrifice, and the eternal hope set before us. A faithful Christian life is built upon continually remembering the Lord and walking in thankful obedience to Him.

God Bless -Todd
