Welcome, Visitor!

We are so pleased to have you as our guest today. If you are a first-time visitor with us, please fill out a ‘visitor card’ that you will find on the back of the pew. You may put it in the collection plate or give it to one of the men at the auditorium doors as you exit. There are free tracts and literature on the wall in the foyer. We also have Bible correspondence courses you can sign up to receive by mail at no cost to you. Let us know if you would like to set up an in-home Bible study.

Thank you for attending. We hope to see you often!

He's Coming Again

One of the greatest promises found in the Word of God is the promise that Jesus Christ is coming again. After His death, burial, resurrection, and ascension into heaven, the angels assured His disciples, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will so come in like manner as you saw Him go into heaven" (Acts 1:11). The return of Christ is not a myth, a figure of speech, or a symbolic event. It is a divine promise that will be fulfilled just as surely as His first coming was fulfilled.

The Bible repeatedly emphasizes the certainty of Christ's return. Jesus Himself said, "I will come again and receive you to Myself; that where I am, there you may be also" (John 14:3). While many have scoffed at this promise throughout history, Peter warned that in the last days mockers would question the Lord's coming. Yet he reminded Christians that God's promises never fail and that the apparent delay is actually a demonstration of God's patience, "not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance" (2 Peter 3:9).

When Jesus returns, it will be a visible and unmistakable event. Paul wrote, "For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God" (1 Thessalonians 4:16). There will be no secret return and no uncertainty about what is taking place. Every eye will see Him, and all mankind will stand before Him in judgment. "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ" (2 Corinthians 5:10).

For the faithful Christian, the Lord's return is a source of hope and encouragement. Paul described it as "the blessed hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ" (Titus 2:13). The promise of heaven, the end of suffering, and eternal fellowship with God motivates us to remain faithful even in difficult times. John wrote, "And everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure" (1 John 3:3).

The question is not whether Jesus is coming again. The Scriptures make that abundantly clear. The question is whether we are ready. Jesus warned, "Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect" (Matthew 24:44). Since no one knows the day or the hour, every day is a day to live faithfully, obey His will, and prepare for eternity.

He came once as the Savior of the world. He is coming again as the righteous Judge. May we live each day with the confidence, anticipation, and readiness that comes from knowing that our Lord is returning. As the apostle John concluded the book of Revelation, "Even so, come, Lord Jesus!" (Revelation 22:20).

God Bless -Todd
