Sunday AM: “Remember Me” – Luke 22:19
Sunday PM: Joseph Herman, Guyanna, SA

Welcome, Visitor!

We are so pleased to have you as our guest today. If you are a first-time visitor with us, please fill out a ‘visitor card’ that you will find on the back of the pew. You may put it in the collection plate or give it to one of the men at the auditorium doors as you exit. There are free tracts and literature on the wall in the foyer. We also have Bible correspondence courses you can sign up to receive by mail at no cost to you. Let us know if you would like to set up an in-home Bible study.

Thank you for attending. We hope to see you often!

Paul and Timothy: Passing the Faith to the Next Generation

One of the most beautiful relationships in the New Testament is the relationship between the apostle Paul and Timothy. Paul was more than Timothy's teacher; he became a spiritual mentor, encourager, and father-like influence. Paul saw Timothy's potential and invested himself in helping this young man become a faithful servant of Christ.

Paul called Timothy his "beloved and faithful son in the Lord" (1 Corinthians 4:17). Timothy had already been blessed with a godly upbringing through his mother Eunice and grandmother Lois, but Paul helped him grow in his faith and prepare for greater responsibilities in the Lord's work. Paul trusted Timothy because he had proven himself faithful. He wrote, "For you know his proven character, that as a son with his father he served with me in the gospel" (Philippians 2:22).

Paul also encouraged Timothy when he needed strength. He reminded him, "For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind" (2 Timothy 1:7). Paul knew that Timothy would face challenges, but he wanted him to remain faithful and courageous.

Perhaps the greatest lesson from their relationship is found in 2 Timothy 2:2: "And the things that you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit these to faithful men who will be able to teach others also." Paul had taught Timothy, and Timothy was now responsible for teaching others. The truth was to be passed from one faithful generation to another.

The church today needs more Pauls and more Timothys. Older Christians have a responsibility to teach, encourage, and train those who are coming behind them. Younger Christians have a responsibility to listen, learn, grow, and eventually teach others. We must never become so concerned about our own generation that we fail to prepare the next one.

Paul eventually reached the end of his life and could say, "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith" (2 Timothy 4:7). He could face the end with confidence because he had helped prepare Timothy to carry on the work.

The question for each of us is simple: Who are we helping become stronger in the faith? Someone is watching our example, learning from our faithfulness, and depending upon us to help them become what God wants them to be. Let us be faithful enough to teach the next generation, and humble enough to learn from those who came before us.

God Bless -Todd
