Sunday AM: “Minutes After I Die” – Hebrews 9:27-28

Sunday PM: “What Did Paul Mean?” “You have been saved by grace through faith” – Ephesians 2:8-10

Welcome, Visitor!

We are so pleased to have you as our guest today. If you are a first-time visitor with us, please fill out a ‘visitor card’ that you will find on the back of the pew. You may put it in the collection plate or give it to one of the men at the auditorium doors as you exit. There are free tracts and literature on the wall in the foyer. We also have Bible correspondence courses you can sign up to receive by mail at no cost to you. Let us know if you would like to set up an in-home Bible study.

Thank you for attending. We hope to see you often!

Does My Life Show That I Belong to Christ?

It is one thing to profess our faith in Jesus Christ, but it is another thing to demonstrate that faith through the way we live. Christianity is more than attending worship services, knowing Bible verses, or wearing the name Christian. It is a daily commitment to follow the Lord in our words, our actions, our attitudes, and our decisions. Jesus said, “You are the light of the world” (Matthew 5:14). Light is meant to be seen, and our lives should reflect the character of the One we claim to serve.

The apostle Paul wrote, “Examine yourselves as to whether you are in the faith. Test yourselves” (2 Corinthians 13:5.0). That is a serious challenge. Do our lives show that God comes first? Do we treat others with kindness, speak with honesty, forgive those who hurt us, and resist the temptation to follow the ways of the world? Are we as concerned about the salvation of others as we are about our own comfort and happiness? These are questions we must be willing to answer honestly.

James reminds us that faith must be demonstrated by our actions. He wrote, “Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead” (James 2:17). We are not saved by earning our salvation, but genuine faith responds to God in obedience. A faith that never changes our conduct, priorities, or relationship with God is a faith that needs serious examination.

The world does not need more people who merely claim to be Christians. It needs to see Christians who live like they belong to Christ. Our families should see it. Our neighbors should see it. Our fellow Christians should see it. Even when no one else is watching, our Lord knows whether our hearts are truly devoted to Him.

We cannot change yesterday, but we can make the decision today to live more faithfully. Let us not be satisfied with simply wearing the name of Christ. Let us strive to reflect His teachings, follow His example, and obey His Word. The question is not merely, “Do people know that I attend church?” The more important question is, “Can people see Christ in the way I live?”

God Bless -Todd
