Sunday AM: "Be Thankful" – Colossians 3:15-17

Sunday PM: "What Did Paul Mean?" Part 5 – Romans 7:15-17

Welcome, Visitor!

We are so pleased to have you as our guest today. If you are a first-time visitor with us, please fill out a 'visitor card' that you will find on the back of the pew. You may put it in the collection plate or give it to one of the men at the auditorium doors as you exit. There are free tracts and literature on the wall in the foyer. We also have Bible correspondence courses you can sign up to receive by mail at no cost to you. Let us know if you would like to set up an in-home Bible study.

Thank you for attending. We hope to see you often!

We All Have Something to Be Thankful For

As Thanksgiving approaches, we are reminded to stop and consider the many blessings God has placed in our lives. It is easy to become so focused on what we do not have that we overlook the many things we should be thankful for. We may not have everything we want, and life may not always turn out the way we planned, but every child of God has reasons to give thanks.

Sometimes our circumstances make it difficult to feel thankful. We may be dealing with sickness, financial struggles, the loss of a loved one, family problems, or disappointments that weigh heavily upon our hearts. Yet, even in the middle of life's difficulties, there are blessings that cannot be taken away. We still have a God who loves us, a Savior who died for us, a Bible that guides us, and the hope of eternal life through Jesus Christ.

The greatest reason we have to be thankful is the salvation God has made possible through His Son. Paul wrote in Ephesians 1:3, "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ." Think about that! Through Christ, we can have forgiveness of sins, peace with God, access to the Father through prayer, fellowship with His people, and the promise of a home in heaven. These are blessings that no earthly circumstance can take away.

We should also be thankful for the privilege of being part of the Lord's church. We have brothers and sisters in Christ who encourage us, pray for us, worship alongside us, and help us remain faithful. We should never take lightly the blessing of gathering together, opening God's Word, singing praises, remembering the sacrifice of Jesus, and encouraging one another in the faith.

Perhaps the most important thing about being thankful is that gratitude should be demonstrated in the way we live. Colossians 3:17 says, "And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him." Our thanksgiving should be seen in our obedience, our worship, our service, our generosity, and our love for others.

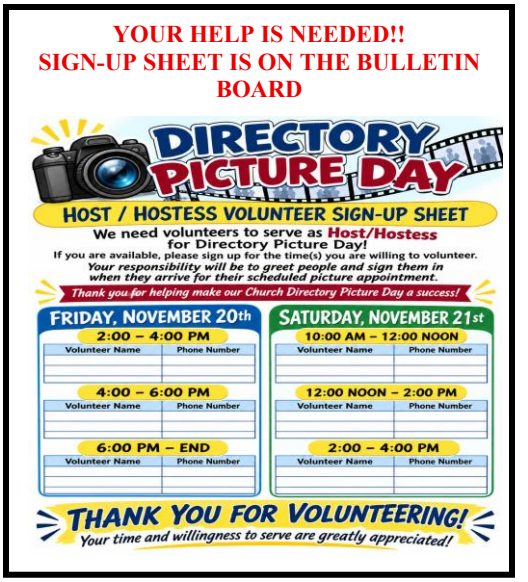

This Thanksgiving season, let us not measure our blessings by what we have accumulated, but by what God has given us. We may not have everything we wish for, but if we have Christ, we have more reason to be thankful than we could ever express. We all have something to be thankful for, and as Christians, we have the greatest reason of all.

God Bless -Todd
