Welcome, Visitor!

We are so pleased to have you as our guest today. If you are a first-time visitor with us, please fill out a 'visitor card' that you will find on the back of the pew. You may put it in the collection plate or give it to one of the men at the auditorium doors as you exit. There are free tracts and literature on the wall in the foyer. We also have Bible correspondence courses you can sign up to receive by mail at no cost to you. Let us know if you would like to set up an in-home Bible study.

Thank you for attending. We hope to see you often!

God Is in Control: Always!

There are times in life when circumstances seem beyond our control. We face uncertainty, unexpected difficulties, and situations that leave us wondering what tomorrow will bring. Yet, as Christians, we have a comforting assurance: God is still in control. The world may seem chaotic, but nothing takes God by surprise, and His purposes will never be defeated. The psalmist declared, “The Lord has established His throne in heaven, And His kingdom rules over all” (Psalm 103:19).

God’s sovereignty does not mean that life will always be easy or that we will understand everything He allows to happen. Joseph experienced betrayal, slavery, and imprisonment, yet he eventually recognized God’s providence in his life. He told his brothers, “But as for you, you meant evil against me; but God meant it for good” (Genesis 50:20). What appeared to be a series of tragedies was ultimately used by God to accomplish His purpose.

When we face uncertainty, we must remember that our responsibility is not to control every circumstance but to trust and obey the One who reigns over all. Proverbs 3:5–6 reminds us to trust in the Lord with all our heart and acknowledge Him in all our ways. We may not know what tomorrow holds, but we know the One who holds tomorrow. We can face the future with confidence because our God is faithful, His promises are sure, and His will cannot be overthrown.

Whatever you may be facing today, do not allow fear or uncertainty to overcome your faith. God is not absent, powerless, or unaware of your struggles. Continue to pray, remain faithful, and trust His wisdom. God is in control, and we can rest in the assurance that He will never forsake those who belong to Him.

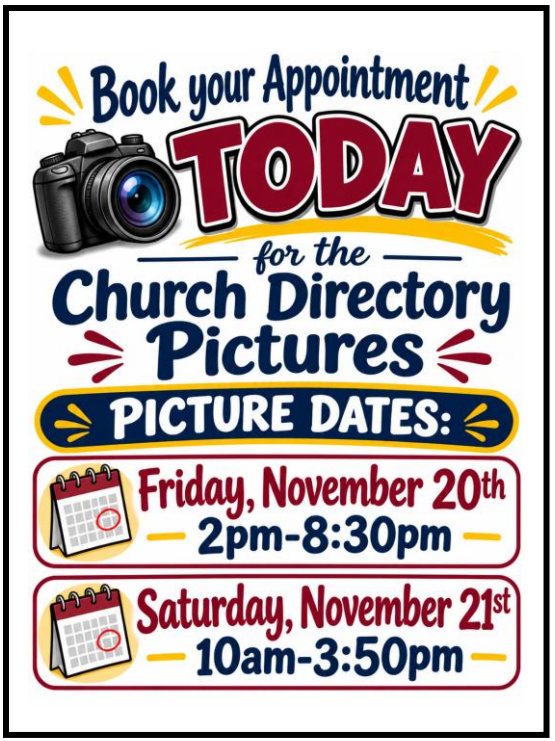

God Bless -Todd
